

Robert M. Rose, M.D.

John E. Leech, Jr., M.D.

José G. Moreno, M.D.

Ronald L. Kabler, M.D.

Pankaj Kalra, M.D.

Lisa A. Robbins, CRNP

Julia C. Coyle, PA-C

Regarding Spinal Anesthesia: If you develop a headache specifically after SPINAL ANESTHESIA, we recommend drinking more fluids, a caffeinated beverage (ie coffee, coke) and bed rest. If this does not relieve your “spinal headache” you should contact the hospital anesthesiologist on call.

Pottstown Hospital (610) 327-7000

Phoenixville Hospital (610) 983-1000